

Craneable Storage Bin

The Craneable Storage Bin is designed for tough, heavy-duty use, keeping your parts and equipment secure whether on-site, in the workshop, or in transit. Built to perform in demanding industrial environments, it's the ideal choice for safe and efficient material handling.

- Finished with a durable zinc plating for long-lasting protection
- Designed for easy movement via forklift or crane and can be stacked up to four high, even when fully loaded
- Equipped with standard crane lifting lugs for convenient handling
- Optional Lockable Lid available to secure tools or smaller equipment on-site
